Please indicate your level of support for the following elements of Raycliff's proposals

Please select one option for each	Strongly agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly disagree
The ongoing production of bells on site in an environmentally sustainable way, including a new working bell foundry on the historic site, run and managed by the Westley Group (with the permission of the Hughes family).
Other uses within the listed historic foundry and front range including artists' studios, affordable creative workspace for small businesses and education uses linked to bell making.
Heritage-led approach with minimal intervention and changes needed to the listed building.
Public access for everyone to the historic foundry space.
High quality design and materials on the rear unlisted site that are sympathetic to the heritage and wider townscape setting.
Viable long term uses within the rear/non-listed part of the site that will help provide investment and maintain the historic buildings.
Creation of economic stimulus and new jobs, including apprenticeships and other local employment in the Whitechapel area.

Overall, do you support Raycliff's heritage-led approach for a sensitive redevelopment of the Whitechapel Bell Foundry?
